Rahr The Brewer's Standard™ 2-Row

Every story starts somewhere. Rahr The Brewer's Standard™ 2-Row's story starts in North American soil. Malted in Shakopee, Minnesota, and Alix, Alberta. Rahr The Brewer's Standard 2-Row is produced from a blend of premium malting barley varieties grown in the US and Canada. Pale gold in color, it's celebrated for its mild sweetness, moderate protein, and good extract yield.

2-Row's clean and neutral profile provides an ideal foundation for showing off aromatic hops, specialty malts, expressive yeast strains, and other flavorings. Due to its extreme versatility and consistent, dependable performance, countless craft brewers choose to use Rahr The Brewer's Standard 2-Row as their go-to base malt for any beer style.
